Mathews.

Samuel Mathews emigrated to Va in the ship Southampton in 1622 and settled in the Indian territory of Tappahanna opposite to Jamestown.
He was at different times councillor, commander of the fort at Old and governor dying in 1659-60 while holding the last office. He married twice at least. The last wife was a widow of Abraham Pierrey who died about 1638. In 1648 a news writer announced that Mathews married the daughter of Sir Thomas Penton - named Francis.

Francis Capt: justice of York Co. He died Feb 16, 1674-75.

of Sir Thomas Winton, lived in Warwick Co, died in 1660 - Rec. page 173 Vol. III Wm + Mary.

Denbigh. - This was the plantation of Col. Samuel Mathews who came to Va in 1622 and filled every office up to and including the Gov. & contemporary.

wrote in 1649 that he had a fine house, reared much hemp and flax and had it spun; kept measures and a tannery, had forty negro slaves, whom he taught up to mechanical trades and sowed large crops of wheat and barley. He also supplied vessels trading to Va with beef. He had plenty of cows a fine dairy and abundance of hogs and poultry and is finally described as one who "kept a good house, bred heavily and was a true lover of Virginia". He married Francis, daughter of Sir Thomas Hinton, and widow successively of Capt Nathaniel West and of Capt Abraham Percey, which last at his death left "the best estate that men was known in Va" — "The Cradle of the Republic", by Lyon G. Tyler p. 239
